But what about kids in church services? It depends on the church, obviously, and they're all different. Here's one way of looking at it: how about we put logistics (space, demographics, time of day) and theology (how important to God do we believe communion is, or the sermon, or beautiful music, or Sunday School?) on two axes of a graph.

These startling orphan statistics are more than mere facts; remember that each number is a precious child . . . a real little kid. Every one is precious in the eyes of God, and He has an extra-special place in His heart for those children who are orphans (see verses here). But whatever you do, don't let these overwhelming statistics discourage you.

Faith in God is the key to pleasing God. It is right to have faith because God is reliable. Faith also releases the blessing of God. It brings God onto the scene. Many people fail to get answers to prayer because they don't have the kind of relationship with God that makes them confident that God is going to answer them.
